Property Description

Casa Colibri is one of our most recent and popular offerings. This beachfront treasure is located on the Northridge of Playa Flamingo, only minutes from the stunning new $50 million Flamingo Marina. In Costa Rica, titled oceanfront property is extremely rare. This residence enters the national gold standard of luxury, with less than 5% of oceanfront property being titled. Apart from the breathtaking views and quiet access to a private beach, Colibri provides comfortable luxury without sacrificing the raw beauty of Costa Rica. This retreat is the epitome of private leisure in paradise, with floor-to-ceiling ocean views, real Costa Rican hardwood ceilings, and lush vegetation on either side of the property. This 4 bedroom, 3000 square foot home has an open concept main room that connects the kitchen, living area, and terrace, allowing for fresh beach breezes and plenty of natural light. The dawn, which faces North East, is one of the many sights that can be seen from all living areas and bedrooms on a regular basis.
