The artistic touches throughout the home create a welcoming atmosphere, where one feels connected to the natural beauty of Costa Rica. Through the gated entrance you are welcomed by the blooming bougainvillea over the lattice entry way and garden filled with flowering plants and herbs. Greeted by La Luna, featuring the eye of Horus for well being, protection and healing, you find the living area to the right, offering a lovely multifunctional space, as well as a large storage bodega and owners closet. In the main part of the home you find the kitchen, with beautiful mango wood island and breakfast bar.
