Property Description

This property is situated in the charming community of San Salvador de Tinamastes and offers an exceptional panoramic view of the Diamante valley. Additionally it has a view of the Diamante Waterfall (highest waterfall in Costa Rica) and a peak view of Manuel Antonio and Pacific sunsets. Access to the main building area is 2 wheel drive and goes over a well-maintained public road. The property also features ample space below the building site for planting fruit trees and a perfect spot next to the house site for a garden and pool. San Salvador de Tinamastes is a thriving community known for its organic farming and farmers market, with close proximity to Uvita beaches just 25 minutes away to the west. The property also benefits from being only 30 minutes away from San Isidro, a bustling city providing various services, including medical facilities, hardware stores, and shopping centers. Infrastructure on the property includes ASADA water, electricity, and fiber optic internet is nearby.
