Property Description

Exceptional ocean view condo on Ocotal Beach with views of The Papagayo. This two-bedroom, two-bathroom property in Los Almendros, right down the beach from Father Roosters, has a wonderful view. The condo itself is in excellent condition, with numerous new and improved appliances, a bed set, ac, and so on. Los Almendros features three public pools as well as several private pools. Parking and entry are really simple, with no steps inside the condo, plenty of space to plug in your golf cart, and a pool in front of the building. For this type of property, HOA costs are cheap, and security is tight. All are only a few minutes' walk from the services and activities of Playas del Coco. In addition, Liberia International Airport is 35 minutes away, with direct flights to North America and Europe. Please contact us for additional information on the recent upgrades.
