Property Description

This beautiful, contemporary, smart house sits in the hills of Santa Ana in a private wooded setting and secure, gated community. The home was designed by Arq. Javier Salinas and features spacious rooms, luxury finishes and smart technology that allows you to turn on lights and open doors from your phone. The home is well designed with 2 nodules and is filled with natural light. The living room has beautiful marble floors and large, expansive windows with views of the woods and waterfall feature. The kitchen is a chef's delight with a large island, quartz counter tops and top of the line appliances. A formal dining room, maid's quarters and laundry room complete this section of the house. The private area of the home is accessed by a series of gently sloping steps. All three bedrooms have imported wooden floors and their own bathroom and walk-in closet. There is also a large TV/media room.
