Property Description

The design and decor of the home is a blend of Costa Rica and Italian, the bedrooms and the main living room are air conditioned with individual thermostats. This newly constructed vacation rental house offers 2 bedrooms and 1 large bathroom and is the ideal spot for your next vacation and romantic getaway. No pets and no children are aloud. The house is located in the heart of beautiful Manuel Antonio city in a small development of lovely homes with restaurants, casinos, clubs, bars and discos all within a 5-10 minute walk. There's even a private wildlife refuge with reptile lagoons and butterfly gardens around the corner. You don't need a rental car to visit Manuel Antonio National Park or enjoy the beach every day because the bus stop is just across the street but if you have a car there are two covered spots very secure as there is a security fence around with lockable gate. The main area consists of spacious living room with wood furniture, dining table seats 4 people, and a nice sofa facing the TV, another flat screen TV is facing the kitchen and dining area.
