Property Description

Welcome to "Casa Ananda" a 3bed 2bath house designed and built by a German architect. Casa Ananda is the perfect house for your day dreams in Costa Rica. Situated in Bosque del Lago, a tranquil community only a 3 minutes drive to Carrillo Beach, its location is unique, away from the noise but at the same time, not too far from all the conveniences of Samara. Completed in 2022, this brand new house has been constructed with high-quality materials and craftsmanship by local artisan craftsmen with great attention to detail. The high ceilings and large windows let in loads of light. The spacious rooms and open floor plan give you plenty of room to live. And the Spanish tile roof keeps the house cool and quiets the rain. In true Costa Rican style, enjoy your time outdoors while cooking with your family in the spacious outdoor living area and when night falls, appreciate the stars from the living room looking through the glass roof section.
