Property Description

This little property has everything. It is right on the Coronado River yet high above it, is perfectly flat so that you can use all of it, has a luxurious community pool, and is just steps away from a 50ft waterfall with a yoga deck nearby. There are great trails up into the hills and great swimming holes in the river. The community has 5 homes built so far and is a gated community for security. The small town of Coronado is just minutes away from Ojochal which has great beaches, restaurants, hardware stores, schools, and more. The property is within 5 minutes of the Cortez hospital. The community has legal water, electricity, and fiber-optic Internet. There is a $230/monthly HOA fee, but the grounds are immaculate and the community pool is cared for with this fee. Features: Coronado riverside property Close to town Huge spectacular waterfall Community Pool Walking trails Infrastructure: Fiber optic Internet ICE electricity Private bridge across the Coronado with gated access Community water Community maintenance Pool maintenance
