Property Description

This beautiful house is located just one mile from the center of the city of Grecia, on a street with little traffic, therefore it is a very quiet place, with enough height to give the property a very interesting view, in which you can see a very good part of the central volcanic mountain range, allowing you to see the Poás, Barva, Irazú and Turrialba volcanoes. The house has 3 different levels, on the main one there is the living room, dining room, kitchen, master bedroom, a full bathroom and a half bathroom, balcony and a large terrace, on the next level there are three bedrooms and a bathroom; on the lowest level we find an office that has a full bathroom right next to it, and direct access from the outside, which allows it to easily be converted into a completely independent guest room. On the property we find a very good variety of fruit trees for your enjoyment such as avocado, guava, orange, lemons, tangerine, mango, soursop, cashew and others.
