Property Description

Nestled amidst the captivating scenery of Costa Rica's southern zone, this exceptional property offers an enticing canvas for a luxurious retreat center or a delightful bed and breakfast establishment. Its most prominent feature is the breathtaking vista of the renowned Whale Tail at Marino Ballena National Park, serving as a compelling focal point. Explore an expansive primary suite with two bathrooms and a scenic ocean-view seating area, with hardwood flooring and panoramic vistas of the lush jungle surroundings. Meticulously designed with a keen eye for detail, the private balcony of the primary bedroom seamlessly integrates indoor and outdoor living with the breathtaking natural splendor that defines this remarkable property. A spacious living room and small office space with A/C provide an ideal setting for relaxation and entertainment. Flooded with natural light from high, bright windows, the living area has impressive hardwood cabinetry lining the walls beneath the staircase leading to the primary suite upstairs.
