Property Description

Welcome to The Capital Farm, a pristine estate spanning across 113.9 hectares (281.4 acres) nestled in the Central Pacific Region of Costa Rica, just 10 km from the vibrant port-town of Quepos. This exquisite property offers a unique fusion of fertile alluvial soils, rolling hills, and captivating landscapes, providing a haven for diverse natural wonders and endless possibilities for development. Ideally situated within proximity to Quepos, with its convenient small airport and the renowned Marina Pez Vela celebrated for exceptional sea fishing, The Capital Farm is a testament to Costa Rica's rich biodiversity. Adjacent to the world-famous Manuel Antonio National Park, with its pristine beaches, native tropical forests, and abundant wildlife, this estate embodies the allure of coastal living and ecological splendor. As you journey toward The Capital Farm, the entrance lies just past the airport along the Central Pacific Coastal Highway, guiding you through a scenic route connecting Quepos and Dominical.
