Property Description

Finding the perfect gathering place for families, friends, and surfers was our Family's goal when buying and rebuilding our jungle escape. As a family, we have traveled the world looking for a community to call home. After ten years of visiting Nosara and Playa Guiones, we finally decided that this was a place to lay our roots, build a community, and stay. In 2023, we designed, built, and opened our dream surf oasis. Now, we want to share it with families, friends, and groups from around the world. The Line Up name came from our children.... it's their favorite part of the surf day. Sitting out like ducks on the water gathering, meeting friends, and scoping waves is the highlight of their surf day. Why not bring that feeling back to shore to keep enjoying? The Line Up is a place for gathering, telling stories, and spending time together. As owners and designers of the home, we wanted to pay homage to the beautiful country and jungle of Costa Rica, specifically the Guanacaste Peninsula, by creating a luxurious experience with modern, clean finishes and sourcing all materials, furniture, and fixtures from around Costa Rica.
