Property Description

Ojochal is the place to be – a hot real estate market driven by her tropical surroundings, services and amenities, and close proximity to some of the most scenic beaches, waterfalls and landscapes of Costa Rica. The town is known as an international village due to her popularity as a destination for expats and tourists alike. World-class dining options surround the local area as do yoga studios and fitness centres, shops and supermarkets, medical clinics, legal offices, hardware stores and many other businesses. But Ojochal is also a true jungle town with numerous mountain streams criss-crossing the area and a canopy of towering trees immersing the local homes and businesses, giving a true 'jungle village' vibe. Resident toucans, flocks of noisy scarlet macaws, howler and capuchin monkeys, sloths, majestic blue morpho butterflies and many other tropical animals complete the Ojochal experience! This large lot takes FULL advantage of the sought-after surroundings.
