Property Description

Welcome to Villa Chirripo, your oasis nestled at the base of Mt. Chirripo, Costa Rica's tallest mountain (3,821m/12,536' above sea level). This luxurious mountain estate offers unparalleled comfort, tranquility, privacy, and absolutely stunning panoramic views. Key Features: Soothing Entry Water Feature: An incredible water feature greets you from the two-car carport, meandering through fountains, tropical landscaping, and a waterfall, creating a serene, cooling ambiance upon entering the villa. Panoramic Views: Enjoy breathtaking vistas of the Chirripo River valley, with distant views of the confluence of the Chucuyo and Chirripo rivers, and the twinkling lights at night of Miravalles and Perez Zeledon. Ideal Climate: With an elevation of just over 4,000 feet above sea level, experience comfortable temperatures around 80 degrees Fahrenheit during the day and crisp, cool evenings. Privacy and Security: Electric-clicker and digitally-coded gate access ensure privacy and security.
