Property Description

Casa Renaissance is a newly built 4-bedroom home on the outskirts of two stunning beaches in Guanacaste. Nestled in a 1.4-acre (5850 square meters) agricultural lot, the house boasts magnificent mountain views from the pool area, providing a picturesque backdrop for relaxation and enjoyment. The home is located just a few hundred yards from a paved highway, with traffic noise almost non-existent just a short drive from Playa Junquillal and Playa Blanca, and 30 min from Tamarindo. The property is the perfect combination of tranquility and convenience. The house itself provides 2045 square feet of habitable space designed to offer a seamless blend of style and functionality. The open floor plan allows for a smooth flow between the living, dining, and modern kitchen, creating an inviting and sociable atmosphere for family and friends. The house features 3 ample bedrooms already furnished with comfortable beds and closets and the fourth bedroom could be adapted to make a functional work space or any other room of your choice.
