Property Description

Welcome to this enchanting and warm 4 bedroom home located only 5 minutes-drive above the growing town of San Isidro in the desirable neighborhood of San Luis in Pérez Zeledón. Conveniently perched overlooking the valley and the iconic views of the magnificent Chirripó Mountain Range. Located at only 22 miles from the beach in Dominical or Playa Linda and close to natural attractions such as waterfalls, rivers, national parks and mountain lodges. It sits over the 2,625 feet of elevation with cool temperatures ranging from 70°F to 80°F and constant breezes making this place perfect for a comfortable living in contrast with the higher temps closer to the sea level. San Isidro is impossible to beat, providing all kinds of amenities such as the Hospital, private clinics, attorneys' offices, supermarkets, a weekly organic market, regional airport, some well-known bilingual schools, many bank offices, lots of hardware stores, great restaurants, commercial centers and everything you could need for day to day living! Stunning architectural beauty with plenty of special places for relax and enjoy the lovely views of the lush gardens that surrounds the house with a touch of nature and the true feeling of living in the tropics.
