Property Description

Nestled just 5 km from the unspoiled shores of Playa Coyote, one of Costa Rica's most beautiful and untouched beaches, this exceptional tropical estate offers a unique combination of privacy, comfort, and versatility. Situated on a generous 2,127 m² property, the estate has been thoughtfully designed to accommodate large families, multi-generational living, private retreats, or groups seeking an exclusive tropical getaway. Surrounded by mature palm trees, colorful tropical gardens, and abundant nature, the property offers a peaceful atmosphere while remaining just minutes from the Pacific Ocean. Inspired by traditional Costa Rican architecture, the residence features warm colors, handcrafted wood accents, and lush landscaping that blends seamlessly with its natural surroundings. From the moment you arrive, the property conveys a welcoming sense of tranquility, privacy, and authentic tropical charm.
