Property Description

Looking for a private neighborhood with only a few neighboring houses? This is the perfect place for you. Tucked away from the hustle and bustle, it offers enough distance from the main road to make you feel like the world is left behind. Located less than 3 miles from the center of Atenas, you'll have easy access to everything you need, including supermarkets, pharmacies, schools, and more. The houses are nearly finished, with only small details remaining, such as the natural fencing between each house, providing additional privacy. The homes are fully furnished and ready for rental. Contact me today, and let's schedule a visit.
