Property Description

—truly the best of both worlds. Perched at 600 feet above sea level, the home enjoys cooler temperatures and refreshing breezes while remaining just 10 to 15 minutes from six local beaches, the town center, and the regional medical facility (only 4 miles away). Every room in the house features breathtaking ocean views. The modern, open-concept design includes two master suites, Spanish porcelain tile flooring, quartz countertops, teak-accented ceilings, custom teak cabinetry, and a handcrafted floating staircase made from guanacaste hardwood. Features include: Expansive balcony and patio area for indoor-outdoor living Backup water tank and pressure system Electric front gate with teak detailing and motor 2-car carport Gently sloping, fully usable lot Located just above a 14-acre nature preserve, home to abundant wildlife This is a truly unique and special property with rare, sweeping ocean views.
