Property Description

The house sits on a large parcel overlooking panoramic views of the Central Valley of the capital city and the mountains of Heredia in the background. The parcel is completely walled and located in a small gated compound of luxury villas, with controlled access. The mountains of San Rafael de Heredia are a favorite location for those looking to enjoy a tranquil life, a fresh climate with clean air, and easy access to downtown Heredia with all of its first class amenities and services. The Country Club El Castillo is located at minutes distance from the property, as well as many nice restaurants. The house enjoys very large social areas with floor to ceiling windows to admire the magnificent views of the city and valley. The social areas open to a large outside terrace with fire pit, connected to the expansive gardens with many fruit trees and organic vegetable and herbs garden. The first floor also has a very nice kitchen with chef style gas stove and nice family dining area, an office with air conditioning and large laundry room.
