Property Description

Located in one of the most prestigious and secure gated communities in the area, this impeccable home will be the envy of many, and the pride of its new owners. Strategically located on a corner lot within the marquee community of Bosques de Lindora, this particular home was remodeled by its current owner, who paid careful attention to details in combining the colonial inspiration to the home, with a contemporary, timeless touch, creating the ideal setting for both living and entertaining. Upon entering the home, a two story foyer with chandelier welcomes you and your eyes are drawn to the brick lined, coffered ceilings in the living and dining room. Venetian stucco walls, and indirect lighting accent the space, which is meticulously decorated with impressive, imported furniture combining metals, hardwoods, and priceless ambient chandeliers. The living room brings in abundant natural light through the floor to ceiling, sliding glass doors which open up to the covered, outdoor living space and immaculate gardens.
