Property Description

If you're searching for a modern home in Playa Grande, Costa Rica, Casa Irie is a standout opportunity. This brand-new tropical modern residence is in its final stage of construction and will be move-in ready in approximately one month—offering a rare chance to secure a turnkey home in one of Guanacaste's most sought-after beach communities, just minutes from the sand and surf. Designed with a seamless indoor-outdoor concept, the home features an open living, dining, and kitchen area enhanced by teak wood clapboard ceilings finished in a natural tone with marine varnish. Large-format porcelain flooring adds a clean, contemporary look while remaining practical for coastal living. The layout flows effortlessly to the private pool and outdoor lounge, creating an ideal setting for entertaining or relaxing in the tropical climate. Spacious bedrooms provide comfort and privacy, while bathrooms are finished with a refined mix of natural stone and solid wood elements.
