Property Description

If you're looking for paradise in Costa Rica, look no further than this newly remodeled one-bedroom, one-bath duplex condo. This home offers high-end finishes and quality construction without compromising your budget. Now reduced to just $129,000, Casa Sereneness is an incredible opportunity to own a beautifully updated home near the beach at an exceptional value. Casa Sereneness has been completely remodeled with a bright and inviting beach-inspired design. The open layout features 18-foot ceilings, creating a spacious feel while allowing plenty of natural light throughout the home. The kitchen includes stainless steel appliances, including a built-in oven, four-burner induction cooktop, exterior-vented microwave, refrigerator, and a convenient pull-out cutting board to maximize prep space. The breakfast bar seats two and provides additional countertop space. The home offers dining for two inside, plus a private outdoor terrace with a bistro table for enjoying morning coffee, outdoor meals, or an evening glass of wine.
