Property Description

Land & Location Set on 2.5 acres of lush, private grounds, this exceptional property is surrounded by mature fruit trees and vibrant flowering plants, creating a serene, nature-rich retreat with minimal neighboring homes. The land features an abundant variety of fruit trees, including avocado, lemon, guanábana, star fruit, and mango. Flowering trees attract incredible wildlife, offering daily sightings of colorful birds such as scarlet macaws and toucans—an authentic Costa Rican experience right in your backyard. Ideally positioned between Orotina and San Mateo, the property is just 1 hour from Juan Santamaría International Airport in San José and approximately 45 minutes from the beaches of Jacó. Orotina provides convenient access to grocery stores, services, and dining, while the surrounding region offers excellent international and bilingual school options. This is an ideal home for families or buyers seeking space, privacy, and the relaxed “Pura Vida” lifestyle in a private and accessible countryside setting.
