Property Description

This ocean-view homesite in Manuel Antonio offers a rare blend of scenery, privacy, and convenience in one of Costa Rica's most sought-after coastal locations. Elevated above the coastline, the property captures sweeping views of the Pacific Ocean, the town of Quepos, and the surrounding mountains and jungle canopy, creating a dramatic backdrop that changes throughout the day. Set within a secure, gated community of established luxury homes, the lot spans 1249 square meters and features easy two-wheel-drive access, a key advantage for both construction and everyday living. The setting feels private and tranquil, yet remains close to everything that makes Manuel Antonio such a desirable place to live. From this location, you are minutes from world-class beaches, dining, shopping, and nature. Manuel Antonio National Park is nearby, offering unmatched wildlife and hiking, while Marina Pez Vela provides full-service boating, sportfishing, and waterfront dining.
