Property Description

Imagine building your magnificent home with a cantilevered infinity pool at the crest of a hill-top property with panoramic views of the Pacific Ocean and the Catalina Islands. Your home can be perched at the top of this 7,001 m² (1.7 acre) parcel, much like a castle commanding attention with its terrain cascading down the hillside in every direction and its silhouette darkening against the ocean's horizon at sunset. This property is ready for you to build your dream home that can be very secure and very private, without obstructing the views. A water meter is installed. Located just 5 minutes from the coastal beach town of Playa Potrero, 10 minutes to the Marina Flamingo and several beautiful beaches nearby and only 15 minutes to world class golf at the Westin on Playa Conchal. It offers privacy in a gated community yet close to Potrero's restaurants, grocery stores and amenities.
