Property Description

Welcome to 1234 Paseo Miraflores, a bright and joyful coastal haven tucked within the charming walkable town of Las Catalinas. This delightful home blends tropical personality with easygoing elegance—an ideal escape for families, groups, or anyone seeking comfort and color in one of Costa Rica’s most beloved seaside destinations. Inside, an open-concept kitchen and living space becomes the heart of the home. Vibrant turquoise cabinetry, artisanal tiles, and sunny yellow accents infuse the kitchen with character, while modern appliances and a spacious island make cooking and gathering effortless. The living area is bathed in natural light and flows seamlessly to a breezy balcony outfitted with hanging chairs—your new favorite spot for sunrise coffee or golden-hour relaxation. The thoughtful layout continues throughout the home. A custom-designed bunk room adds charm and function with built-in beds and playful décor.
