Property Description

This constructed home boasts impeccable finishes and breathtaking ocean views across its top two levels. With two entry options, either from the ground level or the second floor, convenience meets luxury at every turn. Stepping into the main level entry on the second floor, you're welcomed by an open-air pool patio seamlessly connecting the outdoor and indoor spaces. On this level, you'll find the ocean-view master suite alongside two additional bedrooms, each offering comfort and tranquility. Ascend the stairs to the top level, where a spacious kitchen and living area await, highlighted by sweeping ocean vistas and expansive outdoor patios perfect for entertaining. Another bedroom completes this level, ensuring ample space for relaxation and enjoyment. The bottom level of the home offers endless possibilities, with a white box floor allowing for complete flexibility. Whether you envision a golf simulator room, a cozy man cave, or a state-of-the-art theater room, the choice is yours to customize this space to suit your lifestyle.
