Property Description

Set in the hills above San Juanillo with sweeping views toward the Pacific Ocean, this exceptional 600,000 m2 farm offers a rare opportunity to own a large piece of Guanacaste's natural beauty. Located just minutes from the beaches of San Juanillo, the property combines privacy, ocean views, rolling topography, and development potential in one remarkable offering. The land features a mix of open building sites, mature trees, forested areas, and elevated ridgelines with beautiful ocean and mountain views. Several areas of the property have already been cleared, making it easy to envision homesites, eco-lodges, a wellness retreat, luxury estate residences, or an agricultural project. With its size and varied terrain, the property offers endless possibilities for someone looking to create a private sanctuary, boutique development, or investment project in one of Guanacaste's most peaceful and naturally beautiful areas.
