Property Description

Set on 1.25 acres of beautifully kept land, this five bedroom estate offers a rare sense of space, privacy, and uninterrupted ocean views. From its elevated position, the home captures both sunrise and sunset, creating a constantly changing backdrop throughout the day. The main living area is open and light-filled, with floor-to-ceiling glass drawing the outdoors in and framing the water beyond. Clean architectural lines are softened by warm teak details and polished porcelain floors, giving the home a quiet, understated elegance. At the heart of the home is a well-appointed kitchen, designed with both form and function in mind. It features premium appliances, a generous island for gathering, a walk-in pantry, and a separate laundry area. The living and dining spaces extend naturally onto a covered terrace, an ideal setting for long dinners, quiet mornings, or evenings watching the sun dip below the horizon.
