Property Description

Discover this modern newly built home in the vibrant area of Playa Negra, just a pleasant 15-minute walk from the beach. Surrounded by lush tropical nature, the property offers a unique living experience where you can enjoy the sounds of howler monkeys and the rich local wildlife right from your home. The house features three comfortable bedrooms and two well-designed bathrooms, ideal for both full-time living or as a vacation retreat. Its open-concept layout seamlessly connects a beautiful, modern kitchen with the living and dining areas, creating a bright and inviting space perfect for entertaining or relaxing. Outside, the property offers ample parking and a refreshing swimming pool, creating a private oasis in the Caribbean. In addition to being a beautiful residence, this property is also an excellent Airbnb opportunity. Its location, modern design, and connection to nature make it highly attractive for short-term rentals, offering strong potential for consistent income and high occupancy rates in one of the most desirable areas of the South Caribbean.
