Property Description

Located in the beautiful mountains of Grecia, at 4,500 feet above sea level, this property offers lovely views of the city, a completely flat lot, and the charm of a home that reflects the traditional Costa Rican style. The house stands out for its spacious interiors and wooden ceilings, details that bring warmth and character reminiscent of classic Costa Rican homes. The kitchen has been remodeled and features cedar wood cabinets and granite countertops, creating an elegant and functional space for cooking. The home also includes a large dining area, perfect for family gatherings or entertaining guests, as well as a full guest bathroom. In the private area of the home, there are two spacious secondary bedrooms, each with large and comfortable closets. The primary bedroom is also generous in size and features a large closet and its own full bathroom, providing privacy and comfort. Outside, the property offers a green area in the front of the house, while the backyard features several fruit trees, creating a peaceful and natural setting.
