Property Description

Positioned along the ridgeline above Playa Carrillo, Ridge Condo 9 offers a refined coastal living experience with uninterrupted views of the Pacific and surrounding jungle canopy. This upper-level, single-floor residence combines privacy, elevation, and effortless indoor-outdoor living within one of Costa Rica's most thoughtfully planned gated communities. Designed for both comfort and entertaining, the residence features an expansive open-concept layout that flows seamlessly onto a covered terrace with vaulted teak ceilings—an ideal setting for sunset dining, ocean breezes, and year-round enjoyment. South-facing exposure captures natural light throughout the day while framing panoramic bay views. The kitchen is both functional and elegant, equipped with GE Profile stainless steel appliances, granite countertops, custom cabinetry, and a spacious island that anchors the living and dining areas.
