Property Description

Discover Casa Solana, a turnkey investment opportunity located just 10 minutes from Tamarindo, offering strong rental income potential, low-maintenance ownership, and long-term value in one of Costa Rica's most sought-after coastal markets. The open-concept layout integrates kitchen, dining, and living spaces with effortless flow. A contemporary kitchen with a natural stone island and custom wood accents anchors the home, while expansive sliding glass doors open to a covered terrace, a private tropical garden, and an elegant pool with a cascading water feature, creating a refined yet relaxed resort-style atmosphere. The main residence offers two light-filled bedrooms with built-in closets and floor-to-ceiling glass doors overlooking lush greenery. An ideal detached third-bedroom suite with independent access provides flexibility for family, guests, a private office, or income potential while maintaining personal use.
