Property Description

Located within the established La Meridiana community, this spacious second-floor residence offers the opportunity to own a large condo in one of Guanacaste's most convenient and fast-growing residential areas. Featuring four bedrooms and three bathrooms across two stories, the unit provides ample space for full-time living, vacation use, or long-term rental income. The two-level layout offers comfortable living areas and well-separated bedrooms, making it ideal for families, groups, or tenants. Its second-floor position allows for excellent natural light and airflow, while remaining close to the community's amenities. La Meridiana is a secure, gated development with well-maintained grounds, a common pool for residents, and 24/7 security. The community is established, occupied, and known for its peaceful setting and strong rental potential. The central location adds significant value.
