Property Description

Located in a prime residential area of Escazú, between San Rafael and San Antonio, this detached house offers a rare combination of absolute tranquility, privacy, and excellent connectivity. Situated on a wide, low-traffic street, it faces a green area protected by the municipality, guaranteeing unobstructed views, peace and quiet, and a permanent natural environment, free from the risk of future construction. Just minutes away, you'll find shops, shopping centers, parks, a church, and all essential services. Built on two levels, this property is distinguished by its generous spaces, functional layout, and excellent condition. The ground floor features a foyer that leads to a spacious living room with room for one or two sitting areas, a comfortable dining room, and a cool and inviting covered terrace, ideal for enjoying the garden and landscaping. The kitchen is spacious, with well-maintained wooden cabinetry and ample room for an island, conveniently connecting to the dining room and the main entrance.
