Property Description

This cozy boutique hotel has been a part of the Manuel Antonio landscape for the past twenty years and is a truly unique opportunity. The hotel, built by a German family to European standards is a very well built handcrafted property that offers up a unique mix of rooms, apartments, a house and restaurant. There are a total of 8 suites, 3 fully equipped apartments, the Casa Mapache which is either the owners house or another rentable residence, plus the spacious tropical restaurant area. The property is covered in beautiful gardens with tropical trees and flowers such as Avocados, cocos palm trees, and YlangYlang. There is a large private parking lot, biological sewage cleaning system, fully equipped workshop with machinery and plenty of space for expansion. This is an ideal property for an individual, couple or family looking for an owner operator hotel and the property has a profitable long time history and a solid repeat client of nature lovers, biologists and families from around the world who come year after year.
