Property Description

Nestled in the lush hills near Ojochal's Palm of the Tropics community (phase 9), this exceptional 4-bedroom, 3.5 bathroom home represents the very best of Costa Rica's Southern Pacific lifestyle. Perched at approximately 724 feet elevation, the residence delivers rare panoramic whitewater ocean views stretching across the Gulf of Dulce coastline, framing the iconic Whale's Tail sandbar of Uvita Marine National Park and the mysterious Caño Island Biological Reserve on the horizon — a view that never gets old. Ojochal itself is one of Costa Rica's most celebrated expat communities, internationally recognized for its remarkable concentration of gourmet restaurants, boutique shops, and a welcoming multicultural community. The town sits within the Costa Ballena region, a stretch of coastline renowned for whale watching, world-class surfing, snorkeling, and some of the most biodiverse jungle on the planet.
