Property Description

Homesite 35-F at Senderos Tamarindo stands in a class of its own. As one of the first homesites you encounter upon entering Phase 3, it makes an immediate statement—defined by commanding elevation, exceptional privacy, and a view profile that's simply unmatched anywhere in Senderos. This is the true “king of the mountain”: bold, prestigious, and undeniably cinematic. From a single vantage point, 35F takes in Playa Grande, Langosta, Tamarindo, Avellanas, the river and river mouth, and the full sweep of the valley. The experience feels nearly 360 degrees, with both north- and south-facing ocean views—a rare feature even among top-tier hilltop properties. Sunrises wash across the valley, while sunsets melt into the coastline, offering a daily show from dawn to dusk. A future home here can be designed so that nearly every room frames a different, breathtaking slice of Costa Rica's beauty.
