Property Description

Set up like a typical home in rural Costa Rica, Countryside Town of Villa Nueva Quaint House #2 features two bedrooms and one bath, along with a cozy kitchen and living area. In the back of the house, you'll find the laundry room, which opens to the beautiful natural surroundings an area with plenty of space for expansion if desired. The garden includes an impressive variety of fruit trees, a covered garage area, and abundant room to enjoy the wonderful Villa Nueva climate. For buyers who love the peaceful countryside but still want access to top destinations, this property offers a perfect balance. Just 15-20 minutes from Quepos and the renowned Marina Pez Vela, this home sits within reach of Manuel Antonio, where the region's tropical modern homes attract global attention. Because of its location, affordability, and expansion potential, this property stands out as an appealing option for anyone seeking a smart Costa Rica luxury investment without the high entry price typical of the coastal market.
