Property Description

Set within the coveted Las Golondrinas enclave of Hacienda Pinilla, Villa Romantica captures the essence of refined coastal living—where classic architectural detail meets the ease of a modern tropical retreat. With private beach access just steps away, the home offers a lifestyle defined by proximity to the sea. From the moment you arrive, the villa reveals its character through thoughtful craftsmanship. Vintage-inspired, hand-painted tilework, softly arched window frames, and custom Pella windows, while a striking blue-and-white tiled staircase rises through the vaulted entry like a quiet architectural signature. The design feels collected rather than constructed, layered with detail that rewards attention without demanding it. Inside, open ceilings accented with warm wood tones and rich teak finishes bring depth and warmth to the living spaces. Natural light moves freely through oversized windows.
