Property Description

Positioned on one of the most elevated and private homesites within Tamarindo Park, Casa Hilltop is a one-of-a-kind coastal retreat set on a premier lot offering breathtaking 270-degree panoramic views of the Pacific Ocean, Las Baulas Estuary, and surrounding parklands—an outlook that is exceptionally rare to replicate. Located within a gated community just a short walk to both Tamarindo's beach and vibrant town center, the property delivers a unique balance of privacy, sweeping views, and everyday convenience. Designed for seamless indoor-outdoor living, the home opens to expansive terraces and a sunset-facing infinity-edge pool that fully capture the surrounding landscape. The architecture embraces a refined contemporary tropical aesthetic, where clean lines, warm finishes, and expansive glass create a natural connection between interior spaces and the outdoors. The layout includes four primary bedrooms with ensuite baths, along with a flexible fifth room that easily functions as a home office or additional guest suite, complete with a discreet Murphy bed.
