Property Description

This home is brand new! Situated off the main road, you will relish in the incredible views this home has. It faces southeast so you are primarily looking at the central valley and downtown San Jose. If you turn your head to the left you will see stunning views of the Poas volcano too! With two bedrooms and two bathrooms, this ranch house has lots of outdoor space as well as living area. The kitchen has lots of work space and is nicely located with its own entrance from the driveway, yet it opens into the dining and living area. The living room opens up to the huge deck with french doors. The main bedroom is an en-suite with a walk-in closet just before the full bathroom. The bedroom also has french doors leading to the deck and the gorgeous views. The house has a solar hot water heater, internet installed, and screens on the windows. The gutters are aluminum so they will last for years and years.
