Property Description

Nestled in the misty highlands of Monteverde, just six kilometers from Santa Elena, Burbi Lake Lodge sits at 1,300 meters above sea level, surrounded by lush cloud forest and unspoiled scenery. The 4,500 m² property combines tranquility, privacy, and boutique comfort — a rare opportunity where natural beauty meets investment potential. Monteverde is one of Costa Rica's most sought-after destinations, known for its authenticity, sustainability, and emotional appeal. The region attracts wellness travelers, couples, and nature enthusiasts — while new infrastructure and growing accessibility are opening the door to retreats, boutique development, and incentive travel markets. The Lake – The Property's Soul and Signature Asset A private natural lake lies directly below the lodge, creating an unforgettable centerpiece surrounded by forest and wildlife. All guest rooms sit above the lake, offering panoramic views of the water and canopy.
