Property Description

Located in one of the most established and sought-after condominiums in San Pablo de Heredia, this two-story corner home offers a unique residential living experience. From the very first step, the property stands out for its true double-height architecture, which integrates natural light, spaciousness, and a spectacular indoor garden with a waterfall and fish pond, creating a constant connection with nature from the social areas. The layout has been carefully designed for daily living and shared moments: Spacious social areas with floor-to-ceiling windows Living and dining areas with direct views of the indoor garden Large and functional kitchen with granite countertops, central island, and excellent natural lighting Spacious and well-ventilated laundry room On the second floor, there are three generously sized bedrooms, all notably spacious, with the primary suite standing out, which includes: Private sitting area Walk-in closet Bathroom with jacuzzi, designed as a space for rest and privacy The property features 230 m² of construction on an approximately 220 m² lot, with the added benefit of being a corner unit, providing greater privacy, ventilation, and additional green areas.
