Property Description

Located in the exclusive area of La Angelina, Cartago, this property stands out for its spacious layout, privacy, and breathtaking panoramic views of the entire city of Cartago and part of Curridabat—especially stunning at night. The surroundings offer a cool and refreshing climate, as the property sits between 1,800 and 1,880 meters above sea level, with frequent mist and pleasant temperatures throughout the day, creating a constant sense of tranquility and close connection with nature. Strategic Location Strategically positioned just 15 minutes from downtown Cartago, 35 minutes from San José, and approximately one and a half hours from the International Airport, the property offers easy access without sacrificing peace and privacy. Multiple access routes further enhance connectivity and convenience. Ideal for Investment or Residential Use Thanks to its features, size, and natural setting, this property is ideal for the development of an event center, boutique hotel, tourism project, or rental investment, capitalizing on the high demand for exclusive experiences in natural areas close to the city.
