Property Description

This private paradise is perfect as a private home retreat, B&B or family compound property. It sits on a hilltop above manicured grounds, cement drive and electric entry gate. It has a gravel parking area and covered parking rancho for two vehicles attached to the house. The front patio doubles as the main entry to a spacious, open room with kitchen, dining room before continuing to the large family room area where you have windows on all sides. The house has a comfortable, breezy feel with expansive views in all directions and total privacy. Views include jungle, valley, Pacific Ocean and mountain range. The glassed and screened family room provides 270 degrees and is designed to bring the outside in. This room may also double as a 2nd guestroom, with sliding doors and drapes for privacy. The house was built to last with concrete block, cement and steel construction. It has many functional, artful appointments and is completely furnished with high quality furniture and appliances.
