Property Description

Nestled within the flourishing forests of Uvita, Costa Rica, lies A serene haven - a captivating 6-casita hotel business sprawled across 2.5 acres (1 full hectare) of manicured gardens with mature fruit trees. Designed for discerning buyers seeking an affordable yet lucrative venture, this property offers a myriad of opportunities for income generation. Situated atop a gentle hillside, 100 meters above sea level, and steps to the crystal clear and cool waters of the Uvita River, each of the six casitas boasts Mountain Views or jungle and garden surroundings, providing guests with a tranquil retreat amidst nature's splendor. With two distinct floor plans comprising four guest suites and two studio apartments, all adorned with private patios, the accommodation promises both comfort and privacy. The sprawling land will allow for expansion if so desired without risking the serenity that already exists.
