Property Description

Discover an inviting 1.3-hectare property tucked within the peaceful village of San Francisco de Rivas—an ideal canvas for anyone seeking connection to nature while staying close to the valley's most cherished destinations. Offering generous usable terrain, the land provides excellent opportunity for building a home, cabins, gardens, or a small-scale eco-project. Surrounded by mountain ridgelines and cooled by fresh breezes, it's a place where the landscape immediately feels grounding. This parcel is also exceptionally well-priced for this sought-after zone, making it a smart and accessible investment. Just minutes away are the region's most iconic mountain attractions, including the trailhead to summit Mount Chirripó, Cloudbridge Nature Reserve, Los Gigantes Nature Reserve, and several beloved local cafés and restaurants. The weekly farmers market in nearby Chimirol adds to the area's lively community charm.
