Property Description

Discover an exceptional opportunity in the peaceful and private enclave of San Francisco de Rivas, nestled in the heart of the Chirripó Valley. This expansive 6.6-hectare property offers an impressive amount of usable, gently rolling land—ideal for multiple home sites, a private estate, or an eco-minded development. With sweeping mountain views and open spaces that invite creativity, the land provides both freedom and possibility in equal measure. Located just minutes from the region's most iconic natural attractions, you'll find yourself close to the trailhead for Costa Rica's highest peak, Mount Chirripó, as well as Cloudbridge Nature Reserve, Los Gigantes, local cafés, artisan spots, restaurants, community hubs, and the vibrant farmers market in Chimirol. Despite its serene setting, you can reach San Isidro in approximately 40 minutes and the nearest beach in Dominical in about an hour and a half.
